Business Series - Spring 2010

Finance Interview Workshop

Saturday 2/6 11:00-noon, CDC Library

Two investment bankers from UBS will hold an interview tutorial session providing exclusive advice on how to ace an investment banking interview. In the session, they will review technical questions including valuation, comparable company analysis, mergers and acquisitions, capital raises, leveraged buyout and broader qualitative questions such as "Why do you want to be an investment banker?" "Why should a bank hire you over your peers?"

By the end of the session, they hope to prepare the attendees for any investment banking analyst interview. Attendees can also visit their blog www.aceinvestmentbanking.blogspot.com for further questions. Co-hosted with student, Junli Chen '12

GMAT Preparation Workshop

Wednesday 2/18 @ 6:30-8:00pm, CDC Library

Jeff Doff '96 will be teaching Brown students the ins and outs of this challenging exam required for most business school programs. Students will learn about exam basics such as content and format, sample GMAT questions, and learn how adaptive testing works.

Bearer of a 770 GMAT score, Jeff Doff graduated magna cum laude from Brown University and received his MBA from The Fuqua School of Business at Duke University. Now, as a Manhattan GMAT instructor, he helps students to gracefully manage their transition into business school: <http://www.manhattangmat.com/gmat-tutor-doff.cfm>

Career Fair Plus

Wednesday 2/24, noon-4:00pm in Sayles Hall

We're mixing things up at the career fair this Spring by having alumni tables included as part of the fair. There will be a Business Knowledge Area table with alums sharing their career paths in business. A special thank you to Maria Carkovic in COE for helping to identify some fantastic alums!
