

Jon E. Cohen

Jon Cohen is a principal of the Newport Hotel Group, a hospitality investment, management and development company (www.newporthotelgroup.com). Prior to founding Newport Hotel Group in 1993, Jon practiced real estate law at the New York law firm of Schulte, Roth & Zabel. Jon also worked as a financial analyst for Merrill Lynch & Co., where he rotated through several groups, including equity analysis, mezzanine finance and the firm's internal corporate profit modeling.

Since 2004, Jon Cohen has served as an adjunct professor at Brown University. He currently teaches EN 190: Frameworks for Entrepreneurship, a course which he developed. He also teaches the business law and strategy sections of EN 211: Program in Innovation and Management and Entrepreneurship (PRIME). In addition, Jon has taught EN 9: Management of Industrial and Non-Profit Organizations. He has been a speaker for the Entrepreneurship Program and hosts an annual Entrepreneurship Program student retreat. Jon is also an advisor to the Entrepreneurship Program Advisory Board.

Jon Cohen earned his J.D. with Honors from Duke University School of Law in 1992 and is a 1987 graduate of Brown University, where he received his B.A. in Business Economics. He is licensed to practice law in the states of Massachusetts and New York. Jon is interested in the areas of business law, real estate and entrepreneurship. He is an avid reader of the Wall Street Journal.